2016 Delegations: Latin America

presents

Venezuela: April 8-17 A Revolution Worth Our Solidarity

Learn about Venezuela by witnessing it first-hand. Meetings with government and students, women, cooperatives, Afro-descendants, & unionists show what is at stake in this struggle & the role of the US in funding & training the violent opposition. Price: $1400

Colombia: May 22-June 1 Accompaniment Delegation to Support Colombia's Peace Process

We'll learn about accompaniment in Bogota & meet with labor, student & others. We will then accompany activists and farmworkers at risk in this time of transition from war to peace. We also plan to visit one of the US-funded prisons & will meet with current & former political prisoners. Price: $1400

Honduras: June 27-July 6 Human Rights Accompaniment for Communities in Struggle

Human rights accompaniment has saved lives in post-coup Honduras. Despite impunity for human rights abuses, one group that is still untouchable is international visitors. This is a great use of your privilege, to help protect farmers, students, indigenous, LGBTI, and unionists. Price: $1100

Nicaragua: August 5-14 Is the US Still Interfering with Nicaragua's Democracy?

Nicaragua will elect a president in November 2016. Help AfGJ/Nicaragua Network investigate & expose US intervention in Nicaragua's elections. We will also meet with popular movements & government representatives to learn why Nicaraguans are not among the flood of refugees trying to enter the US. Price $1050

Arizona/Mexico: November 11-20 Why is the US Building Prisons in Mexico?

"Prison imperialism" is a model the US is pushing in 25 countries. This delegation will begin in Tucson, AZ where it will learn about border militarization and criminalization of migration. It will travel in Mexico to Hermosillo, Mexico City, and Oaxaca to meet with prison activists, migrant advocacy groups, and others. Price: TBA

Paraguay: January 6-17, 2017 Land of Inequality and Food Insecurity

Paraguay is little-known to US solidarity activists & Latin Americanists. Paraguay has the most unequal land distribution in the hemisphere and its agro-export model leaves little land to grow food for its own people. Learn with AfGJ about struggles by popular organizations for economic equality & food sovereignty. Price: TBA

Price includes: hotels (double occupancy) food, in-country travel, translation, and program. It does not include international airfare. Email delegations@AFGJ.org for applications or further information. www.AFGJ.org
